RATING 91

2002 Neumeister Winery Grauburgunder Saziani

Pinot Gris, Südsteiermark, $30

Packed with white fruit flavors, ripe pears, and a touch of spice. These fruit flavors combine with a dense but elegant structure and balancing acidity. This is a high-alcohol wine (14.5%) and it shows in the oily texture. Imported by Morandell Imports. — R.V. (2/1/2006)

2004 Neumeister Winery Grauburgunder Steirische Klassik

Pinot Gris, Südsteiermark, $19

Albert Neumeister has made something of a specialty with his Grauburgunder (Pinot Gris), especially his Saziani range. This Klassik cuvée, while less exalted, is fresh, dry, crisp and very pure, with spice and pepper along with light, poised acidity. Imported by Morandell Imports. — R.V. (2/1/2006)

2003 Neumeister Winery Moarfeitl

Sauvignon Blanc, Styria, $37

Ripeand tropical, yet a bit over the top. This wine seems reflective of the hot 2003 vintage. It's sweet from start to finish, with a thick body that one reviewer labeled "cloying." If you like richness and size more than citrus and verve, this fits the bill. Imported by Morandell Imports. — W.E. (7/1/2005)

2003 Neumeister Winery Steirische Klassik

Sauvignon Blanc, Styria, $31

Musky, with aromas of lemon-lime, tonic water, and bubble gum. Downright spritzy in the mouth, where it almost seems to bubble up and impersonate a bottle of Sprite soda. Lacks sophistication, but pours on the citrus and green melon. Imported by Morandell Imports. — W.E. (7/1/2005)
